

Interview questions
for the English in Action teachers
EMILY TURFUS and DAVID WILKS

1. Why did you choose to become a teacher?

2. What kind of students do you like to work with?

3. How do you help students experience success?

4. Who should be responsible for discipline in a school? Why?

5. Do you have a lot of school administration to do and how do you feel about that?

6. What rules do you have for your classroom?

7. Can you name three people who have most influenced your education?

8. How would a colleague describe you?

9. If you could teach any novel, what would it be and what would your students be doing?

10. What do you think was your most successful lesson you have taught and why?

11. What was the most challenging lesson you have had to teach, and how did you overcome the obstacles?

12. Do you have any hobbies?

13. And our last question for today is:
- What do you want to be when you grow up?

